CD NEWS

This is the schedule for CCD through May 3rd:

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Dear Parishioners:

...It was great to see so many people in Church on Holy Thursday, Good Friday and Easter...Many thanks for your kind generosity to the Good Friday collection for the sacred sites in the Holy Land...and thanks too for your kind generosity to the parish in the Easter collection. Thanks too to those of you who contributed to the Easter flower collection. The decorations in the Church helped us to celebrate this Great Feast! The names for the Easter flower memorials will appear in one of the upcoming bulletins...and the total of the Easter collection will be published in the bulletin as well. Again, many thanks.

...Our next wish list item for the Heritage Fund is the air conditioning system that serves the sacristy, the daily Mass Chapel, and the Blessed Sacrament Chapel, and the bathroom in the front of the Church - at an estimated cost of $10,000. And I'm pleased to announce that the Confraternity of Christian Women has donated its proceeds from the Christmas fund-raiser to the Heritage Fund to cover the cost of this air conditioning project - many thanks to them and to all who attended the fund-raiser. So the cost of this wish list item is completely covered.

...In the next three weeks we will be celebrating 1st Communion for the little ones. At the 10AM Mass on 19 April, at the 12Noon Mass on 26 April, and at the 12Noon Mass on 3 May, we'll have 8 or 9 young people and their families seated in the front of the Church. We welcome these young people to the Eucharist for the first of many times. Please remember them and their families in your prayers as they approach the Lord's Table. Congratulations and welcome to them all! Those receiving for the first of many times on 19 April are: Dominic Alino, Delany Barreto, Alexa DeChavez, Isabella Giangarra, Max Grandov, Maliyah Ruth Silva-Powell, Lola Solano, Yadira Velez.

*God bless,
Fr. Ken*
